

Franklin County Board of Developmental Disabilities

'Helping people to live, learn and work in our community'

NewsBits

Free 'Good Life' Training on February 23 in Columbus

The Ohio Department of Developmental Disabilities, Nisonger Center and the Ohio Developmental Disabilities Council are sponsoring a workshop for anyone interested in learning the 'Charting the Life Course' framework, which helps individuals and families of all abilities at any age or stage of life to develop a vision for a good life.

Admission is free and materials are free. The course will be at Xenos, 1390 Community Park Drive, Columbus, 43229. For details or to register click here:

<http://www.planetreg.com/E14111317130331> or call Kim Weimer at 614-466-8359. -

Franklin County Board of Developmental Disabilities | (614) 475-6440
newsbits@fcbdd.org | www.fcbdd.org
2879 Johnstown Road, Columbus, OH 43219