

Franklin County Board of Developmental Disabilities

'Helping people to live, learn and work in our community'

NewsBits

Commissioners Team with Goodwill and Columbus Clippers

The Franklin County Commissioners have teamed up with Goodwill Columbus and the Columbus Clippers to help individuals recycle unwanted electronic waste, such as computers, small appliances and other electronics. The public can donate unwanted items on Saturday, April 25, 2015 from 9am to Noon at Huntington Park, 330 Huntington Park Lane.

DSW Receives Award for Employment Best Practices

Designer Shoe Warehouse (DSW) has been selected to receive the 2015 Best Practices Award from the Association of People Supporting Employment First. The award recognizes DSW for their outstanding accomplishments promoting integrated employment for individuals with developmental disabilities in partnership with ARC Industries. Kurt Schmitter, Director of Workforce Development, nominated DSW for the award.

Sunapple Studio Artists Recognized

Congratulations to Tony Harrington, John Smith, Amy Tracy and Stephanie Spencer for having their drawings and paintings selected for the Accessible Expressions Ohio exhibit. For the next several weeks their work will be on display at the Westerville Community Center and then will be on displays around Ohio.

Sunapple also has a display and items for sale at Oakland Inside and Out, a new retail store in New Albany. The display is in the room designated for local artists.

Franklin County Board of Developmental Disabilities | (614) 475-6440

newsbits@cbdd.org | www.cbdd.org

2879 Johnstown Road, Columbus, OH 43219

Copyright © 2013. All Rights Reserved.