'Helping people to live, learn and work in our community'

Tricks-or-Suites

The first ever Trick-Or-Suites will be held at the Dublin Embassy Suites on October 28 from 6-8pm. The Central Ohio Autism Society is partnering with Embassy Suites to provide a safe and fun environment for individuals who have special needs to enjoy trick-or-treat. Goody bags, trick or treat booths, cookie decorating, crafts and face painting are all planned. Advance registration is required with RSVP to www.autismcentralohio.org or call 614-284-6323.

Hague Living Skills Center Move

Plans are continuing for the move of the Hague Living Skills Center to the Northeast Center in Gahanna. The move is tentatively scheduled to take place the weekend of December 5 and staff will set up rooms and facilities on Monday, December 7. The people who will attend the Northeast Center will not attend on Monday, December 7. If renovation timelines change these plans, families and providers will be notified.

Guardian Training Update

Due to the overwhelming response to the guardian training, the October classes have been filled. For those who have sent in registrations or called, confirmations have been sent to the address provided for the October sessions.

If you sent in a registration or called and the October trainings were filled, you have been automatically registered for an additional training to be held on Thursday, November 12 from 9:30am to 3:30pm at the Xenos Center, 1390 Community Park Drive, Columbus, 43229 (Take Cleveland Ave exit south off I-270, right on Community Park Drive and look for Xenos sign). A confirmation will be sent.

If you have not yet registered and would like to join the November 12 training at Xenos, you may register by emailing the following to fcbddwebsite@fcbdd.org (or by sending to Guardian Training, 2879 Johnstown Road, Columbus, Ohio 43219) by November 6: Your complete name, complete address, phone number and the name of the person for whom you are guardian.

Phone registrations will not be able to be accepted. This November 12 training is only offered to guardians of people served by the Franklin County Board of DD. If you send this information, you may attend the November 12 session--an additional confirmation will not be sent. Parking is in the rear of the building. Participants are asked to bring their own lunch and beverages and should arrive between 9 and 9:30am.
