Marcy Samuel Announces Retirement

– Marcy Samuel, Director of Program Operations for the Franklin County Board of Developmental Disabilities, has announced her retirement effective in March, 2019. According to Jed Morison, Superintendent/CEO "Marcy has done wonderful work for us the past 15 years and the field for over 45 years. She is an outstanding administrator, advocate and friend to so many and will be missed." More will be written about Marcy and her career in the January issue of 'Dateline'. Plans for the future are to analyze Marcy's responsibilities, existing staff roles and the FCBDD overall table of organization before deciding on future plans for filling Marcy's duties.
