Parties reach tentative agreement

The Honorable Judge Edmund A. Sargus, Jr., of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio has granted preliminary approval to a settlement agreement in the class action Ball v. DeWine.

Disability Rights Ohio (DRO), the law firm of Sidley Austin LLP, the Center for Public Representation (CPR), and attorney Sam Bagenstos brought the class action lawsuit in March 2016 on behalf of some individuals with developmental disabilities and their families, and The Ability Center of Greater Toledo. The parties include the state of Ohio, the Ohio Department of Developmental Disabilities (DODD), the Ohio Department of Medicaid (ODM), Opportunities for Ohioans with Disabilities (OOD).

The Ohio Association of County Boards of Developmental Disabilities (OACBDD) was successful in petitioning the Court to be added as a party so that county boards would have an independent voice at the negotiating table.

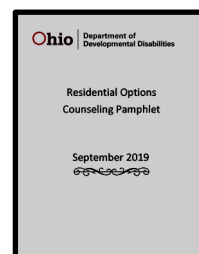

Under the agreement, DODD will:

- Expand options counseling and pre-admission counseling programs.
- Maintain peer-to-peer and family-to-family programs and exploratory community visits for people who have not yet made a decision.
- Expand access to state-funded Individual Options waivers for people who choose a waiver.
- Support and expand programs for integrated, affordable housing, and integrated employment and day services.
- Continue follow-along visits for people after they have left ICFs (Intermediate Care Facilities).

Under this agreement, no one who currently lives in an ICF will be required to move into the community, and those who are considering ICF care will still be able to make that choice.

The Ohio Department of Developmental Disabilities has published a "Residential Options Counseling Pamphlet," which describes services available in Intermediate Care Facilities and services available under home and community based services. To download the pamphlet, go to <https://dodd.ohio.gov/wps/portal/gov/dodd/providers/icf-resources/pamphlet-options-counseling>.

The proposed settlement now must be shared with the many members of the plaintiff class participating in the case for their review prior to being formalized by the court at a hearing scheduled for December 17, 2019.

Franklin County Public Health celebrates 100 years!

Congratulations to Franklin County Public Health on 100 years of progress.

In 1919, the Hughes Act and Griswold Act established local health departments and laid the foundation for public health efforts still in effect today. This followed a statewide smallpox epidemic in 1917 and a nationwide influenza epidemic in 1918.

Joe Mazzola, Franklin County Health Commissioner, Commissioner Kevin Boyce, Board members of the Franklin County Board of Health and other community experts were speakers at the celebration of 100 years on October 24, 2019. They spoke of enormous strides that have been made this past century in improving the health and longevity of people.

OOD Job Fair

Congratulations to Opportunities for Ohioans with Disabilities (OOD) on another successful round of Regional Job Fairs in recognition of National Disability Employment Awareness Month.

The job fairs connected several hundred employers with over 700 job seekers with some securing employment on the site. Kevin Miller, Director of OOD said that over 90 people who were employed last year have retained their jobs a year later.

Congresswoman Joyce Beatty stopped by the Columbus event, held at the Nationwide and Ohio Farm Bureau 4-H Center on The Ohio State University Campus. Congresswoman Beatty stated she “was impressed with the turnout and efforts to help people secure jobs.”

Census workers needed

Thousands of temporary workers are now being recruited for the 2020 Census. The U.S. Census Bureau is recruiting people across the country to assist with the 2020 Census count. In the spring of 2020, Census Takers will knock on doors to follow up with households who have not responded to the census questionnaire.

Applying for one of these jobs is simple. Just call 855-JOB-2020 and select option 3 for more information. Pay rates for the field and clerical jobs can be found at 2020census.gov/jobs/pay-and-locations.

Those who are being considered for a position will receive a telephone interview. If offered a job, they will receive instructions on next steps via email.

Most applications will remain active throughout the 2020 Census and may be considered as positions become available.

Jed Morison, Superintendent/CEO of the Franklin County Board of Developmental Disabilities is serving as Chairman of the Census Disability Sub-Committee for Franklin County. All individuals are encouraged to respond to the census in the Spring of 2020, recognizing that federal funds are allocated to different states and counties, based on the Census counts.

Single ISP template being developed

The Ohio Department of Developmental Disabilities (DODD) continues to work on the development of a single assessment and Individual Service Plan (ISP) template that will be used for all people receiving developmental disabilities services in Ohio.

A workgroup made up of 28 stakeholders began their work in July, 2019 following feedback from forums that were held in May and June. Stakeholders include people receiving services, family members, providers, county boards of developmental disabilities representatives, intermediate care facility staff and state staff. Workgroup members represent both large and small counties and agencies.

Central Ohio representatives on the workgroup include: Marci Straughter, Self-Advocate, Melissa Skaggs, ARC Industries, Jean Stuntz, Dynamic Pathways, and Anita Allen, OPRA.

The workgroup, meeting monthly, will determine the course for piloting a new ISP template, training and implementation. Current plans are to pilot the new ISP template in January, 2020 after which the workgroup will review data collected in the pilot and decide on necessary updates and changes.

It is expected that the Franklin County Board of Developmental Disabilities Service Coordinators will be asked to pilot the new ISP template.

For additional details on the Single ISP template work, visit the Ohio Department of Developmental Disabilities (DODD) website at: <https://dodd.ohio.gov/wps/portal/gov/dodd/about-us/communication/news/news-dodd-hosts-ohio-isp-workgroup>

Winter weather planning

When winter weather is threatening, it is possible that the Franklin County Board of Developmental Disabilities transportation might have to be cancelled.

On days when FCBDD transportation is cancelled, Administration and Service Coordination locations remain open, unless the weather is severe.

Individuals, family members and providers are also reminded that they can always decide not to send an individual even if the FCBDD buses are operating. Conditions may vary in different areas of the county. Individual circumstances and health considerations may require that people stay home to be safe.

When transportation is cancelled, television stations will be contacted as soon as the decision is made.

Community Survey and Needs Assessment

Annually, the Franklin County Board of Developmental Disabilities conducts an assessment to seek opinions on the quality of services provided and needs in our community.

The survey can be completed anonymously and is designed to seek feedback from individuals served, families, staff, providers, volunteers, advocates, other agencies and the public.

The survey is included in this issue of 'Dateline'. We ask all to take a few minutes to offer your opinions to help with our future planning.

Thank you!
