

Franklin County Board of Developmental Disabilities

'Helping people to live, learn and work in our community'

NewsBits

Black Physicians Network stresses importance of COVID vaccine

Because people of color continue to be disproportionately affected by COVID-19, members of the Columbus Black Physicians Network created a video to share their views on the importance of becoming vaccinated. Doctors discuss the pandemic's physical and economic toll on Black communities, address reasons people might be reluctant to get the shot, and celebrate the contributions of Black scientists in developing the COVID-19 vaccine.

Click here to watch the "Our Community vs. COVID 19" video.

April also is Minority Health Month, a health-promotion and disease-prevention campaign that reaches into urban, suburban and rural areas of Ohio. For more information and to see a calendar of events, go to the Ohio Commission on Minority Health website.

Franklin County Board of Developmental Disabilities | 2879 Johnstown Road, Columbus, OH 43219

Unsubscribe | Update Profile | About Constant Contact

Sent by newsbits@fcbdd.org