Pilot Program Connects Families and Providers:'The Connector'

'The Connector' is a pilot program of the Franklin County Board of Developmental Disabilities designed to 'connect' families with service Providers. For questions regarding 'The Connector' program, call 614-475-6440 and ask for Joni Sparks. Click on the link below and scroll down to 'The Connector' for a description of the program and forms that can be printed for families to request provider information or for Providers to participate.
