

Franklin County Board of Developmental Disabilities

'Helping people to live, learn and work in our community'

NewsBits

Principal Hired for West Central School and Transition Services

The Franklin County Board of Developmental Disabilities is pleased to announce that Rebecca Holthaus has been hired as the new Principal for West Central School and Transition Services replacing Dr. Maryalice Turner, who will retire on July 31, 2022.

Rebecca Holthaus comes to the position with excellent credentials, including over 20 years as a Principal in public and private schools, including her most recent position with the Stark County Board of Developmental Disabilities. She has an undergraduate degree from Marshall University and Masters Degree in Education from Wright State University.

We welcome Principal Rebecca Holthaus, who will begin on August 1, 2022 as we say good-bye and thanks to Dr. Turner on many years of excellent services.

Franklin County Board of Developmental Disabilities | 2879 Johnstown Road, Columbus, OH 43219

Unsubscribe | Update Profile | About Constant Contact

Sent by newsbits@fcbdd.org