Ohio Department of Development Development Disabilities
(DODD) Family Engagement Survey

Attention: Families, People with Developmental Disabilities

DODD works to communicate and connect with families and people with lived experience. To align our communication and resources with these preferences, we ask people with disabilities and their families to take this short survey about what DODD family resources they use and how they were involved with DODD during the past year. The results will inform DODD how to best support families in the future. Click below to take the survey:
