Linda Fleming

We are saddened to report that Linda Fleming, former Executive Assistant to the Superintendent's office for the Franklin County Board of Developmental Disabilities, passed away on Friday, May 26, 2023. Linda retired from the Board in December 2016 after 20 years of service for the Board.

Superintendent Jed Morison stated that "Linda was first class in every respect and did all she could to help people, whether it was those we serve, their families, staff or the public. She had a huge impact on our agency and the services provided. Our thoughts are with Linda, her husband John and family.

Arrangements are being handled by Schoedinger Margarum Northeast in Gahanna.
