Education, Awareness and Etiquette Presentations on Disability

Are you interested in an opportunity to broaden your awareness, understanding and confidence in relationships with people who have disabilities?

If so, sign up for Friendship Connections, a free program designed to help one feel more comfortable interacting with a person with a disability, opening a pathway for new and joy filled relationships. The program includes three classroom presentations on Education (9/14/23, 5:30pm); Awareness (10/12/2023, 6:30pm) and Etiquette (11/9/23, 6:30pm). All presentations end at 8:30pm.

The classroom presentations include hands on experiences with adults who have disabilities and attendance at all classes is required. All sessions will be held at Peace Lutheran Church, 455 Clark State Road, Gahanna. Learn about different disabilities, accommodations, communication guidance and appropriate language.
